

ROGERS CAPITAL – CORPORATE APPOINTS NEW BOARD MEMBER

Jean Paul Ndjemba Abessolo, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Matha Capital SA, a pan African financial advisory firm headquartered in Côte d'Ivoire, has been appointed as Non - Executive Director to the Rogers Capital – Corporate Board. This appointment reflects Rogers Capital's ambition to extend its footprint in Africa, specifically in West Africa.

Up until June 2017, Jean Paul Ndjemba was Executive Director and Country Head of Global Banking for Standard Chartered Bank Cote d'Ivoire, overseeing Corporate, Investment and Institutional Banking, Treasury and Transaction Banking. Before relocating to Cote d'Ivoire, he held the position of Executive Director and Country Head of Corporate and Institutional Clients at Standard Chartered Bank Mauritius Limited from 2011 to 2014.

Prior to that Jean Paul occupied important positions in Asia – as Head of Global Corporate for Standard Chartered Bank Vietnam Limited, in addition to his Governance role as Chief Executive Officer of Standard Chartered Bank Hanoi Branch. He was also the Chief Representative of Standard Chartered Bank in Vietnam's Asia Commercial Bank, an affiliate company of Standard Chartered Bank between 2007 and 2009. In Singapore, he held the roles of Group Product Manager in Transaction Banking, overseeing Clearing and Continuous Linked Settlement in 56 countries and Senior Manager in Asia Governance and Strategic initiatives while at Standard Chartered Bank Singapore.

He has a solid experience in many areas of Banking including Corporate and Investment Banking, Financial Markets, Transaction Banking and Governance. Jean Paul brings with him a wealth of diverse experience with 18 years in Banking across Asia and Africa. Jean Paul graduated from The George Washington University with degrees in Finance and Economics.