 - 10.2.1.7 Obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies of comparable scale and complexity. To help it fulfil its obligations the committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the company but within any budgetary restraints imposed by the Board.
 - 10.2.1.8 Be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the committee.
 - 10.2.1.9 Oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company and its subsidiaries.
 - 10.2.1.10 Work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees.
 - 10.2.1.11 Recommend to the Board for continuation (or not) in service of any director who has reached the age of 70.

11. Reporting responsibilities

- 11.1 The CGC Chairman shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 11.2 The CGC shall make whatever recommendations it deems appropriate to the Board on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 11.3 The CGC shall produce a report to be included in the annual report about its activities, the process used to make appointments and explain if external advice has not been used. The report should also include a statement of the Board's policy on diversity, including gender, any measurable objectives that it has set for implementing the policy, and progress on achieving the objectives.

12. Remuneration

- 12.1 Having regard for the functions performed by the members of the CGC in addition to their functions as directors in relation to the activities of the CGC, members of the Committee may be paid such special remuneration in respect of their appointment as shall be fixed by the Board. Such special remuneration shall be in addition to the annual fees payable to directors.
- 12.2 The Chairman of the CGC shall, in addition to his or her remuneration as member, receive a further sum as determined by the Board.

13. Other matters

- 13.1 The CGC shall:
 - 13.1.1 have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company secretariat for assistance as required.
 - 13.1.2 be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members.
 - 13.1.3 give due consideration to laws and regulations, the principles of The National Code of Corporate Governance of Mauritius (2016) and any other applicable rules, as appropriate.
 - 13.1.4 arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its charter to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

14. Authority

- 14.1 The CGC is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the Company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference.

15. Approval, monitoring and review processes

- 15.1 The CGC shall regularly monitor compliance with these terms of reference.
- 15.2 These terms of reference shall be reviewed at the end of each financial year by the CGC. Any comments or proposed amendments shall be tabled before the CGC for recommendation to the Board for approval.
