CHARTER OF RISK MANAGEMENT & AUDIT COMMITTEE ('RMAC')

1. Objectives

- 1.1. The Board of Directors is responsible for the risk management and for the integrity of the financial statements of the company and group (Rogers Capital Ltd and its subsidiary companies).
- 1.2. Other areas that need to be reviewed are important accounting issues, impending changes in legislation that will give rise to changes in practice, compliance in regard to specific disclosures in the financial statements and the publication of annual report.
- 1.3. The overall objectives as stated above, whilst remaining the responsibility of the Board as a whole, have been delegated by the Board to a specialised working committee which shall be known as the 'Risk Management and Audit Committee' or 'RMAC' and shall deal with all pertinent matters relating to the operations of the company. It is expected that this practice will also be adopted in its sub holding companies, where required by legislation / regulation or otherwise necessary.
- 1.4. The RMAC should not perform any management functions other than to determine the extent of and remuneration for any audit and non-audit services performed by the External Auditors nor assumes any management responsibilities other than to the extent prescribed by legislation. It serves to provide a forum for discussing business risk and control issues, to create the facility whereby the Board can seek the necessary assurances that these factors are being properly managed, thereby being able to develop recommendations for consideration by the Board.
- 1.5. The RMAC shall monitor external developments relating to the practice of corporate accountability and the reporting of specifically associated risks, including emerging and prospective impacts.
- 1.6. The RMAC shall engage outside counsel or advisors for guidance on complex or controversial accounting treatments or other issues that emerge.

2. Membership

- 2.1. At the time of adopting this Charter, Rogers Capital Ltd is not a public interest entity as defined by the Financial Reporting Act 2004 ('PIE'). - 9.5.9 Safeguard organisation's assets against unauthorised use or disposal; and
- 9.5.10 Direct and supervise investigations into matters within its scope, for example, evaluations of the effectiveness of the organisation's internal control, cases of employee fraud, misconduct or conflict of interest.

9.6. External audit

The Committee shall:

- 9.6.1 Consider and make recommendations to the Board, to be put to shareholders for approval at the Meetings of Shareholders, in relation to the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the Company's External Auditor; and
- 9.6.2 Ensure that the audit services contract is renewed in compliance with prevailing legislation and in line with Rogers group policy.

9.6.3 If an External Auditor resigns, investigate the issues leading to this and decide whether any action is required.

9.6.4 Oversee the relationship with the External Auditor including (but not limited to):

- 9.6.4.1 Recommendations on their remuneration, including both fees for audit and non-audit services, and that the level of fees is appropriate to enable an effective and high-quality audit to be conducted;
 - 9.6.4.2 Approval of their terms of engagement, including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit and the scope of the audit;
 - 9.6.4.3 Assessing annually their independence and objectivity taking into account relevant professional and regulatory requirements and the relationship with the External Auditor as a whole, including the provision of any non-audit services;
 - 9.6.4.4 Satisfying itself that there are no relationships (such as family, employment, investment, financial or business) between the External Auditor and the organisation (other than in the ordinary course of business) which could adversely affect the External Auditor's independence and objectivity;
 - 9.6.4.5 Agreeing with the Board a policy on the employment of former employees (Audit Partners) of the Company's External Auditor, and monitoring the implementation of this policy;
 - 9.6.4.6 Monitoring the External Auditor's compliance with relevant ethical and professional guidance on the rotation of audit partner, the level of fees paid by the organisation compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related requirements;
 - 9.6.4.7 Assessing when necessarily the qualifications, expertise and resources of the External Auditor, which shall include a report from the External Auditor on their own internal quality procedures;
 - 9.6.4.8 Seeking to ensure co-ordination between audit firms (where more than one audit firm is involved);
 - 9.6.4.9 Seeking to ensure co-ordination with the activities of the internal audit function; and
 - 9.6.4.10 Evaluating the risks to the quality and effectiveness of the financial reporting process and consideration of the need to include the risk of the withdrawal of their External Auditor from the market in that evaluation.
- 9.6.5 Meet regularly with the External Auditor (including once at the planning stage before the audit and once after the audit at the reporting stage) and at least once a year, without management being present, to discuss the External Auditor's remit and any issues arising from the audit.
- 9.6.6 Review and approve the annual audit plan and ensure that it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement, having regard to the seniority, expertise and experience of the audit team.
- 9.6.7 Consider whether any significant ventures, investments or operations are not subject to external audit.
- 9.6.8 Obtain assurance from the External Auditor(s) that proper systems and adequate accounting records are being maintained.
- 9.6.9 Agree to the timing and nature of reports from the External Auditor(s).
- 9.6.10 Review the findings of the audit with the External Auditor. This shall include but not be limited to the following:
- 9.6.10.1 A discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit;
 - 9.6.10.2 Key accounting and audit judgements;
 - 9.6.10.3 Levels of errors identified during the audit; and
 - 9.6.10.4 The effectiveness of the audit process.
- 9.6.11 Review any representation letter(s) requested by the External Auditor before they are signed by management
- 9.6.12 Review the management letter and management's response to the External Auditor's findings and recommendations.

9.6.13 Develop and implement policy on the supply of non-audit services by the External Auditor to avoid any threat to auditor objectivity and independence, taking into account any relevant ethical guidance on the matter.

9.7 Health, Safety and Environment

The company believes that it should develop and implement health, safety and environmental practices to at least comply with existing legislative and regulatory frameworks and furthermore aim for best practice in accordance with the company's corporate values and long-term objectives. The executive management should identify health and safety risks and undertake assessments leading to sound risk management strategies in the organisation's particular field of activity.

The Committee should regularly monitor and evaluate health and safety compliance and report their findings in the annual report.

9.8 Business Conduct

The company is committed to observing and promoting the highest standards of ethical behaviour in all its undertakings and among all its stakeholders.

There are a number of statutory, common law and other requirements that cover the ethical behaviour of Directors, Managers and Officers of companies. In addition, the company has established a clearly defined and documented code of ethics. The Directors must declare the nature and extent of their interest in contracts.

The Corporate Governance Committee is primarily responsible for:

- a) Corporate governance provisions to be adopted
- b) Executive remuneration and individual directors' remuneration
- c) Board and Senior management appointments

However, if any violations in the Code of Ethics are identified in the normal course of an audit and reported to the RMAC, they will be referred and discussed at the level of the Corporate Governance Committee.

10. Reporting responsibilities

10.1 The Committee Chairperson shall report formally to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities and shall also formally report to the Board on how it has discharged its responsibilities. This report shall include:

- 10.1.1. The significant issues that it considered in relation to the financial statements and how these were addressed;
- 10.1.2. Its recommendation on the appointment or reappointment of the External Auditor; and
- 10.1.3. Any other issues on which the Board has requested the Committee's opinion.

10.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

10.3 The Committee shall compile a report on its activities to be included in the Company's annual report. The report should include an explanation of significant issues that the Committee considered in relation to the financial statements and how these issues were addressed, having regard to matters communicated to it by the External Auditor. In compiling the report the Committee should exercise judgement in deciding which of the issues it considers in relation to the financial statements are significant, but should include at least those matters that have informed the Board's assessment of whether the Company is a going concern.

10. Remuneration

11.1 Having regard for the functions performed by the members of the Committee in addition to their functions as directors in relation to the activities of the Committee, members of the Committee may be paid such special remuneration in respect of their appointment as shall be fixed by the Board. Such special remuneration shall be in addition to the annual fees payable to directors.

11.2 The Chairperson of the Committee shall, in addition to his or her remuneration as member, receive a further sum as determined by the Board.

12. Other matters

The Committee shall:

- 12.1 Have access to outside or other independent professional advice as it considers necessary to carry out its duties;
- 12.2 Have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company secretariat for assistance as required;
- 12.3 Be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- 12.4 Give due consideration to laws and regulations, the National Code of Corporate Governance for Mauritius (2016) and any other applicable legislations/rules, as appropriate;
- 12.5 Oversee any investigation of activities which are within its terms of reference;
- 12.6 Work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees; and
- 12.7 Arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board.

13. Authority

The Committee is authorised to:

- 13.1 Seek any information it requires from any employee of the organisation in order to perform its duties;
- 13.2 Obtain, at the organisation's expense, independent legal, accounting or other professional advice on any matter it believes it necessary to do so; and
- 13.3 Call any employee to be questioned at a meeting of the Committee as and when required.

14. Responsibilities of Management

Management shall:

- 14.1 Provide regular and accurate reports to the RMAC and senior management about performance and operations of the business sectors. Where applicable the reports should be in accordance with International Standards (for example IFRS for financial statements).
- 14.2 Maintain long term sustainability of the business through good Corporate Governance and sound Risk Management practices.
- 14.3 Run regular evaluation of risks of the businesses with the help of the Corporate Risk & Internal Audit department.
- 14.4 Deploy and own effective internal control systems of the business.
